

Daytona Beach It Happened There

Daytona lost the reign as the oldest operating shuffleboard club in America, when in April 2006, courts that dated back more than 70 years were removed without fanfare like yesterday's garbage.

City Island will now bond with neighboring clubs to keep the shuffleboard families intact and do their best to disprove the saying: "For Everything There is a Season."

(Shuffleboard will not take the path of the drive-in movies theaters. Courts do not disappear, they just relocate, thanks to dedicated leaders in the shuffleboard world, with companies like NIDY and ALLEN R. SHUFFLEBOARD and others to support them.)

Shuffleboard

By Jim Waters

We wonder who are partners will be
Will it be her or maybe he?
One day the court is fast, another slow.
But without practise, how can we know?

When we come to the courts to play,
We think maybe it will be our day.
It doesn't take long for us to know
Just how bad the drift can go.

Isn't it odd how the courts can change
Just when we thought they were in our range?
They drift to the left and then to the right.
We shoot too wide or shoot too tight.
It's a great game. Let's have fun.
See you all on the courts at half-past one.
