

East team bounces back

First Jim Bailey (16 to 7) and Gus Bondi (15 to 12) both won their singles game on the same court. Then Pauline Young (15 to minus 5) and Bob Weber (12 to 8) did the same on the next court. Rosaire Cote then won his match and the East was on a roll. Bob Weber motivated the team with a “Whattawegonnado? cheer question and the East team responding “Score”

Whattawegonnado? “Score”

Saturday there will be 24 games played. It is possible that Captain Earl Ball will be able to lead the team to bringing the match close.

By Sunday the West could have its hands full with the Easterners learning their western game.

Stay tuned ...

(Above) Rosaire Cote and his opponent Nancy Chaffin. Rosaire won!

(Right) Don DeHart in the center blue shirt winning his first game against Chuck Crouse.

