

THE QUINNS HOST A CELEBRATION!! 2004

Sandi Quinn, most travelled reporter for THE SHUFFLER, not only has an ability to make her reports interesting, she has panache when it comes to hosting a party~~especially when that party is to celebrate the birthday of husband Stan!! On Monday evening a group of us got together for dinner at Fatz~~which is a first class eating establishment for those who may not know. Landy (Adkins) discovered almost at the outset that one could purchase a full bottle of wine for the price of two glasses!! Fatz policy; any wine not drunk at the end of the evening will be bottled and may be taken with you~~it was not necessary to invoke their policy!! The wine and the tasty food made for good conversation between and among the many friends gathered to help Stan as he officially enters the age category of a Senior! At the appropriate time the staff came to the table, led us all in a rousing version of Happy Birthday, and then left Stan with the wonderful dessert that you see in the photo. It was such a generous helping that Stan passed it around the entire table~~no one could resist, and when it returned there was still a bit left. All had a great time. The get-together demonstrated that we all can continue to have good fun, to enjoy a party~~AND most everyone felt "real good" the next day!!! (Others ended up in the consolation event!!) It was a great event! All of us wish Stan a very Happy Birthday!! Stanistheman_200@yahoo.com
